

+

+

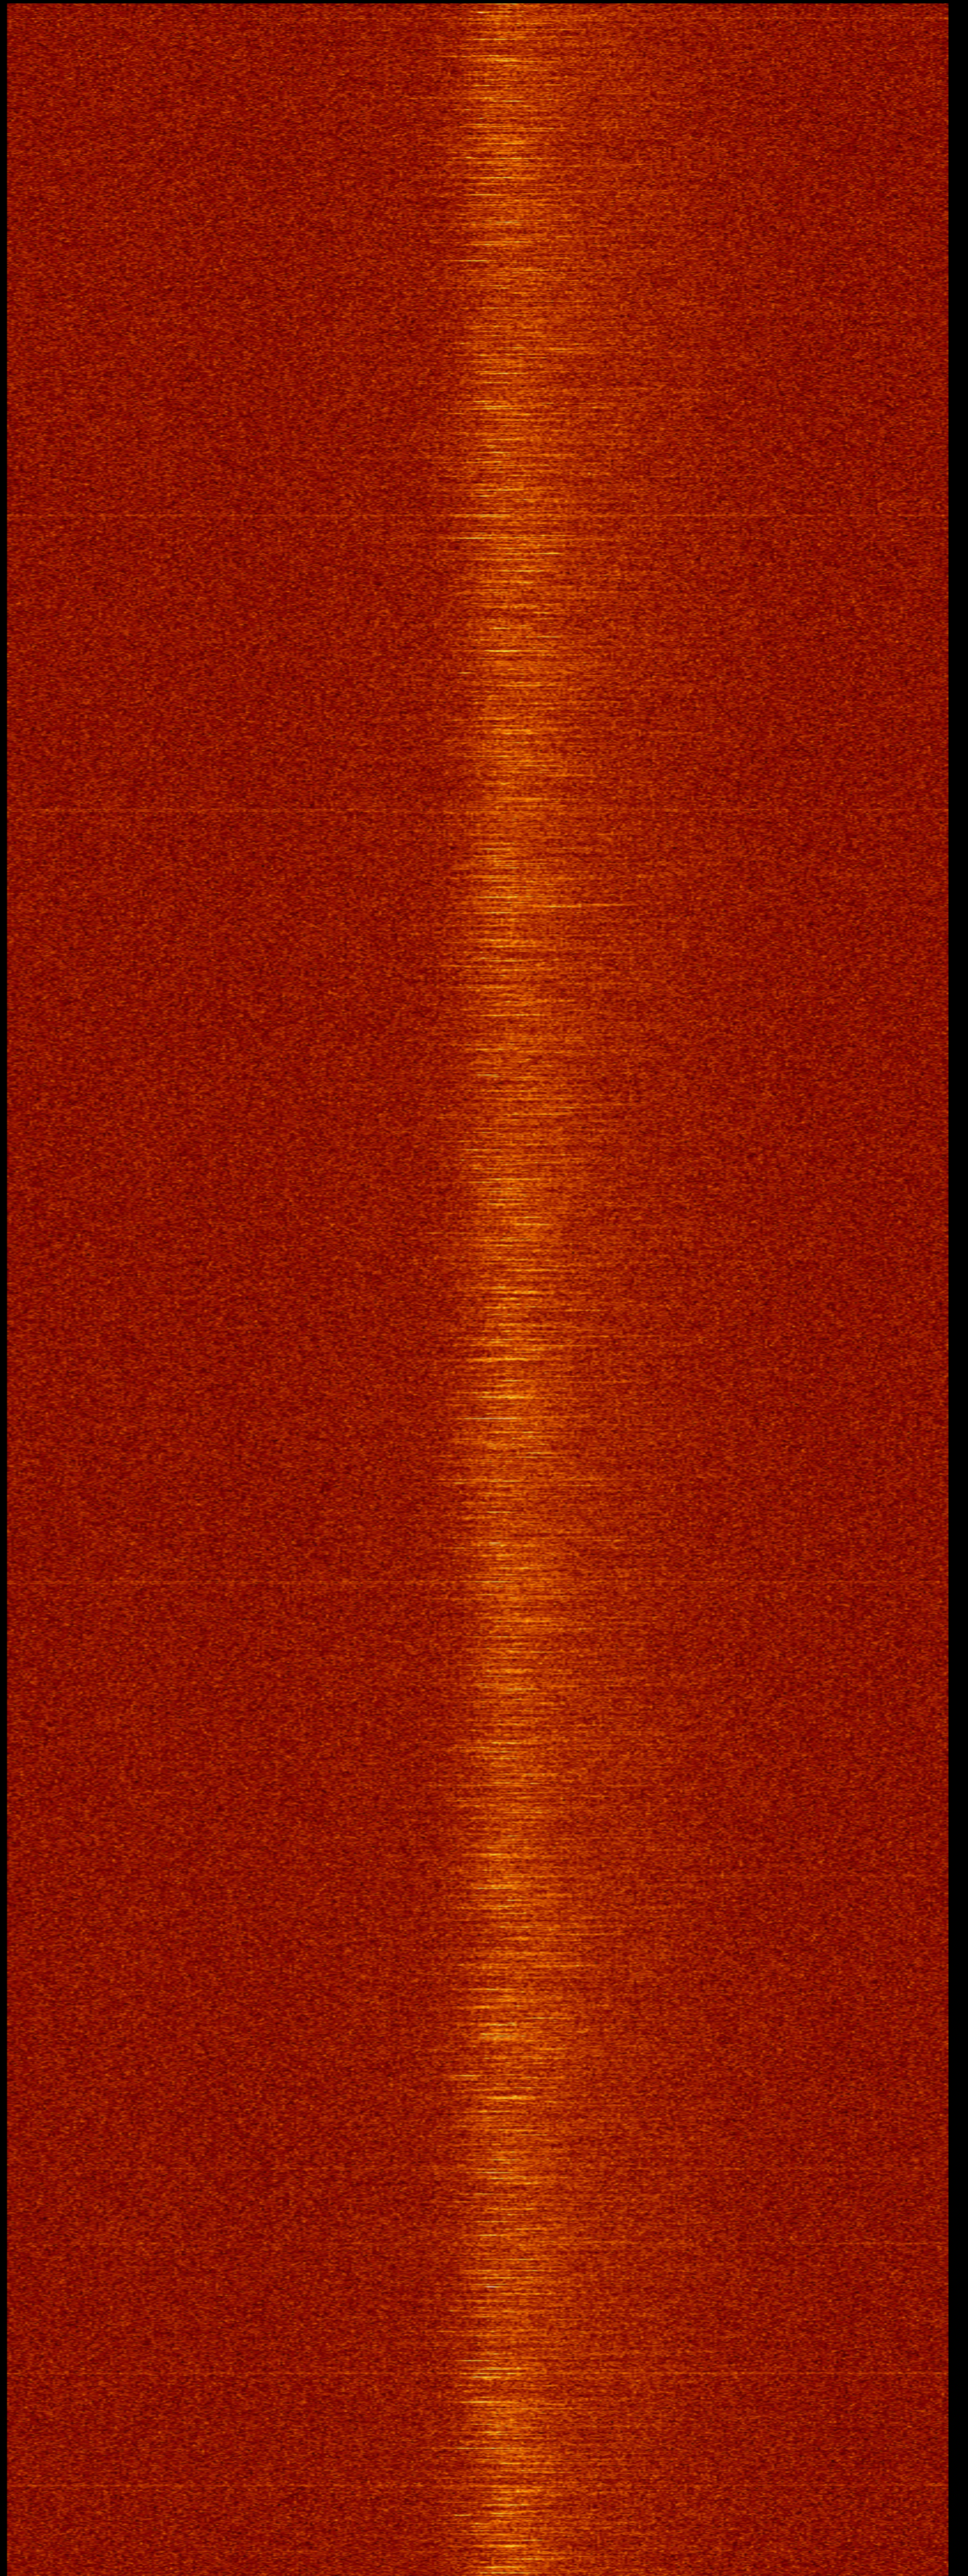

+

+

=

The Large European Array for Pulsars (LEAP) coherently adds the data obtained with the Effelsberg, Lovell, Nançay, Sardinia and Westerbork radio telescopes. The plot on the right shows 3000 pulses of the millisecond pulsar J1713+0747 obtained with LEAP, the most sensitive observation of this pulsar to date.

